'Jammu & Kashmir govt to give priority to address menace of smuggling & counterfeiting'

Ranjan Prakash Thakur, Principal Secretary, Department of Industries and Commerce, Govt of J&K said that adequate priority needs to be placed across government department in J&K

NEW DELHI: Ranjan Prakash Thakur, Principal Secretary, Department of Industries and Commerce, Govt of Jammu and Kashmir on Friday said, "Illicit trade is a grave concern, it undermines the nation's economy, affects the health of the citizens and needs to be addressed on an urgent basis."

Addressing a webinar on 'Policies and Strategies to Prevent Counterfeiting and Smuggling' organized by FICCI CASCADIE, Thakur said that adequate priority needs to be placed across the government department in J&K, be it enforcement, training, or consumer awareness while addressing the issue.

Mohd Akbar, Joint Director, Dept of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, Govt of J&K said, "Large scale consumer awareness through the help of print and electronic media needs to be created which will sensitise the public on this menace." Irfana Ahmed, Deputy Drug Controller, Kashmir while sharing the initiatives of the department to address this issue stated that in last few years, almost 23 drugs were found to be spurious in the UT and 70-80 percent cases were prosecuted.

Laeq Ahmad, Deputy Director Prosecution, Crime Headquarters, Jammu & Kashmir Police said, "During the year 2020, we have seized around 3 lakh 87 thousand intoxicated capsules, fake injections and syrups. In the year 2018, 2019 & 2020, 15, 24 & 26 cases have been registered under the copyright act at various police stations of J&K UT," he added.

Anil Rajput, Chairman, FICCI CASCADIE said, "Illicit products have infiltrated everyday avenues of commerce, making their way into supply chains and consumers' homes, thereby threatening manufacturers' competitiveness, undermining consumer confidence and posing a threat to individuals' health and safety." Applauding the efforts of the enforcement authorities, he said, "While smugglers and counterfeiters are exploiting the current situation by supplying illicit alternative of products, the alert enforcement authorities in J&K have uncovered and arrested people engaged in illicit trade of liquor, cigarettes, currency, drugs, sanitizers and much more."

Irfan Ahmed Guju, Chairman, FICCI J&K State Council said, "Counterfeiting and smuggling are lucrative business that take advantage of unwitting consumers and simply exploits their financial position. An orchestrated strategy including communication, coordination and close cooperation amongst various govt agencies, law enforcement officials and private sector to combat this menace is imperative." #001

Ranjan Prakash Thakur, Principal Secretary, Department of Industries and Commerce, Jammu and Kashmir government, said on Friday that illicit trade is a grave concern, which undermines the nation's economy, affects the health of the citizens and needs to be addressed on an urgent basis.

Addressing a webinar on 'Policies and Strategies to Prevent Counterfeiting and Smuggling' organised by FICCI's Committee Against Smuggling and Counterfeiting Activities Destroying the Economy (CASCADE), Thakur said that adequate priority needs to be placed across the government departments in J&K, be it enforcement, training, or consumer awareness, while addressing the issue.

Mohd Akbar, Joint Director, Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, J&K government, said, "Large scale consumer awareness through the help of print and electronic media needs to be created which will sensitise the public on this menace."

Irfana Ahmed, Deputy Drug Controller, Jammu and Kashmir, while sharing the initiatives of the department to address this issue, stated that in the last few years, almost 25 drugs were found to be spurious in the UT and 70-80 per cent cases were prosecuted.

Laeq Ahmad, Deputy Director (Prosecution), Crime Headquarters, Jammu & Kashmir Police, said, "In 2020, we seized around 3,87,000 intoxicated capsules, fake injections and syrups. In the year 2018, 2019 and 2020, 15, 24 and 26 cases were registered under the copyright act, respectively, at various police stations of Jammu and Kashmir."

J&K Govt to give priority to address the menace of Smuggling and Counterfeiting: Ranjan Prakash Thakur, Principal Secretary, Dept of Industries and Commerce, Govt of J&K

09 Jul 2021 - 4:25 PM

NEW DELHI, 09 July 2021: Mr Ranjan Prakash Thakur, Principal Secretary, Department of Industries and Commerce, Govt of Jammu and Kashmir today said, "Illicit trade is a grave concern, it undermines the nation's economy, affects the health of the citizens and needs to be addressed on an urgent basis."

Addressing a webinar on 'Policies and Strategies to Prevent Counterfeiting and Smuggling' organized by FICCI's Committee Against Smuggling and Counterfeiting Activities Destroying the Economy (CASCADE), Mr Thakur said that adequate priority needs to be placed across the government department in J&K, be it enforcement, training, or consumer awareness while addressing the issue.

Mr Mohd Akbar, Joint Director, Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, Govt of J&K said, "Large scale consumer awareness through the help of print and electronic media needs to be created which will sensitize the public on this menace."

Mr Ifano Ahmed, Deputy Drug Controller, Kashmir while sharing the initiatives of the department to address this issue stated that in last few years, almost 23 drugs were found to be spurious in the UT and 70-80 percent cases were prosecuted.

Mr Laseeq Ahmad, Deputy Director Prosecution, Crime Headquarters, Jammu & Kashmir Police said, "During the year 2020, we have seized around 3 lakh 87 thousand intoxicated capsules, fake injections and syrups. In the year 2018, 2019 & 2020, 15, 24 & 26 cases have been registered under the copyright act at various police stations of Jammu & Kashmir UT," he added.

Mr Anil Rajput, Chairman, FICCI CASCADE said, "Illicit products have infiltrated everyday avenues of commerce, making their way into supply chains and consumers' homes, thereby threatening manufacturers' competitiveness, undermining consumer confidence and posing a threat to individuals' health and safety." Applauding the efforts of the enforcement authorities, he said, "While smugglers and counterfeiters are exploiting the current situation by supplying illicit alternative of products, the alert enforcement authorities in J&K have uncovered and arrested people engaged in illicit trade of liquor, cigarettes, currency, drugs, sanitizers and much more."

Mr Ifan Ahmed Guju, Chairman, FICCI J&K State Council and MD (A Multi) Venture Pvt Ltd said, "Counterfeiting and smuggling are lucrative business that take advantage of unwitting consumers and simply exploits their financial position. An orchestrated strategy including communication, coordination and close cooperation amongst various government agencies, law enforcement officials and private sector to combat this menace is imperative."

As cases related to smuggling and counterfeiting rise steeply during the past few months, today's webinar was organized to discuss actionable, innovative solutions and strategies for curbing this menace. This initiative is a part of a series of such interactions which are being organized by FICCI CASCADE, across the country to highlight the problem of counterfeiting and smuggling and elicit response from different states.

नई दिल्ली: जम्मू-कश्मीर सरकार के उद्योग और वाणिज्य विभाग के प्रधान सचिव रंजन प्रकाश ठाकुर ने शुक्रवार को कहा कि अवैध व्यापार एक गंभीर चिंता का विषय है, जो देश की अर्थव्यवस्था को कमजोर करता है और नागरिकों के स्वास्थ्य को प्रभावित करता है। इस पर तत्काल आधार पर कार्रवाई करने की आवश्यकता है।

अर्थव्यवस्था को नष्ट करने वाली तस्करी और जालसाजी गतिविधियों के खिलाफ फिक्की की समिति द्वारा आयोजित जालसाजी और तस्करी को रोकने के लिए नीतियां और रणनीतियां पर एक वेबिनार को संबोधित करते हुए, ठाकुर ने कहा कि जम्मू-कश्मीर में सरकारी विभागों में पर्याप्त प्राथमिकता दी जानी चाहिए, चाहे वह प्रवर्तन हो, प्रशिक्षण या उपभोक्ता जागरूकता हो।

जम्मू-कश्मीर सरकार के खाद्य, नागरिक आपूर्ति और उपभोक्ता मामलों के विभाग के संयुक्त निदेशक मोहम्मद अकबर ने कहा, प्रिंट और इलेक्ट्रॉनिक मीडिया की मदद से बड़े पैमाने पर उपभोक्ता जागरूकता पैदा करने की जरूरत है जो इस खतरे पर जनता को जागरूक करेगी।
