NEW DELHI, 1 MARCH

FICCI's Committee Against Smuggling and Counterfeiting Activities Destroying the Economy (CASCADE) has joined hands with the Ministry of Consumer Affairs to encourage the country's youth to be part of the socio-economic development of the nation by creating a youth movement against smuggling and counterfeiting.

In this endeavour, FICCI CASCADE in association with the Ministry is organising a painting competition on the theme "Youth for Socio-Economic Development - Paving the Way for India's Amrit Kaal".

With the objective to generate awareness on the adverse impacts of smuggling and counterfeiting, especially among school children who are the consumers of tomorrow, this competition is being organised as a run-up to the World Consumer Rights Day celebrations by the Ministry of Consumer Affairs. This day, which is celebrated world over on March 15, stands in solidarity with the international consumer movement, demanding consumer rights to be respected and protected.

The inter-school painting competition is open for students from Class IX to XII from schools across the country. The top three entries will receive a certificate of recognition, along with cash prize of Rs 50,000, Rs 25,000 and Rs 15,000, respectively. The participants can send their work at cascade@ficci.com by March 2. The winners will be awarded during the World Consumer Rights Day celebrations organised by the Ministry.

This competition is being organised as a run-up to the World Consumer Rights Day celebrations by the ministry of consumer affairs on March 15. Rohit Kumar Singh, secretary, ministry of consumer affairs, said, "Our future generations are the hope for real change, empowering and strengthening them to act for national development will help in shaping the future of our country in a brighter and more prosperous manner. World Consumer Rights Day is celebrated every year by our ministry to protect the rights of consumers and to ensure that they are not subjected to market abuse or social injustice that may undermine their rights."

Anil Rajput, chairman, FICCI CASCADE, said, "The youth of India are country's future. As India marks 75 years of its Independence and enters into Amrit Kaal, the 25-year-long Lead up to India@100, the youth will play a pivotal role in nation building and advocating socially responsible behaviour towards the country's development."
